

MI JU: WOORI

OCTOBER 23 - DECEMBER 11, 2017

New York artist Mi Ju creates meticulous works on canvas that showcase birds, insects, fruit, and plantlife rendered in collage, acrylic paint, watercolor, pen, and pencil. Her large, labor-intensive and layered works toy with the micro and macro and explore such themes as pollution, global warming, food chains, and extreme weather conditions. Tiny ecosystems accumulate over large surfaces, creating intricate universes composed of marks and color.
